COVID-19 TEMPORARY EMPLOYER/EMPLOYEE RELIEF SCHEME (TERS)

All workers, whether or not they were registered with the Unemployment Insurance Fund (UIF) at the time of lockdown, can now apply for COVID-19 TERS funding.

You are eligible to apply for benefits even if your employer has failed to register with the UIF or to pay contributions.

If your rights are being violated during the lockdown you can get access to free legal assistance from one of South Africa's public interest legal organisations.
